

A. P. BIGELOW WINS HANDICAP

Ernie Ford and William Draney Tie in 50 Target Trap Event

William Draney and Ernie Ford tied with 47 clay birds exterminated at the weekly shoot of the Ogden Gun club, held yesterday. Warren Binford, a new member, on his first appearance at the traps made a remarkable score, despite the high wind. He broke 29 out of the first 25 and out of 50 smashed 46.

In the 20-yard handicap of 25 targets, A. P. Bigelow carried off the honors by breaking 24. He lost the end sight from his gun, but, according to his record, the loss of the sight appeared to be of little consequence.

A week from Sunday, on May 9, there will be a 150-target registered shoot for a purse and trophy presented by the American Trapshooting association for high gun. Shooters from Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Nevada will attend. Wednesday's scores were:

W. M. Draney	47
Ernie Ford	47
A. P. Bigelow	45
James Doon	45
G. L. Becker	44
Warren Binford	44
William Tuttle	36
Handicap, 25 targets, 20 yards
A. P. Bigelow	24
G. L. Becker	22
William Draney	22
Ernie Ford	20

NO GROUCHES WHEN THESE YOUNG MOVIE STARS ARE PRESENT

Doris May and Douglas MacLean Spread Gospel of Joy at Ince Studio

Doris May and Douglas MacLean, recent acquisitions to the ranks of motion picture stars, are "the life of the party" out at the big Ince studio these tumultuous days. Miss May is only seventeen years old, and Mr. MacLean is a youth in his early twenties. Happiness is their middle names. They fairly radiate the joy of life, and old-timers on the Ince lot say their presence is as good as a youth-bringing injection of Dr. Voronoff's famous "monkey serum."

Mr. MacLean insisted upon his dressing room being papered with a bluebird design, and amuses himself and others between scenes playing the ukulele and singing popular airs in a most jocular manner. He was once a member of a college glee club and possesses a pleasant voice. Butterflies adorn the walls of Miss May's private room at the Ince studio. She breezes in every morning with a big bouquet of beautiful California flowers and presents everybody with one for their buttonholes.

High spirits and wholesome fun are the chief ingredients of "What's Your Husband Doing?" the new screen farce in which this delightful pair are featured. It is a picturization of a well-known Broadway farce and will be shown at the Alhambra theater for two days, beginning tomorrow. The film was produced by Thomas H. Ince for Paramount-Artcraft.

SWEET SPIRITS OF LILACS SEND HIM TO JAIL; FINE $90

Lilacs de France—extract vegetal—perfum, 76 per cent proof in alcoholic contents, caused the arrest of B. Chapple, 31, a blacksmith, last night, by Officer J. M. Hawkins. Chapple appeared before Judge Roberts this morning at the city court and, after pleading guilty, was given $90 or 30 days.

Chapple said that he had taken but one drink of the Lilacs de France, etc., but that one drink had been sufficient to make him lose all his recollection of what happened until Officer Hawkins arrested him.

The fragrant beverage was found in his possession, the arresting officer stated.

Urges Citizens to Continue Cleanup

With the first lap of Ogden's cleanup and painting campaign completed, Dr. J. M. Elliott, city sanitary inspector, who is directing the drive, has issued a call for the residents of the city to continue the good work to the finish and to let up in their industry to make the city clean and bright.

The cleanup teams and trucks are now working in the third and fourth districts, but almost two weeks' time will be necessary to close the campaign, according to Dr. Elliott.

There is a vacant swivel chair in the city board of health office and indications are that it will remain so until the completion of the cleanup drive. The chair belongs to Dr. Elliott, but it is not being warmed by him these days.

The inspector may be discerned at the scene of action during the entire day, directing the movement of the trucks and wagons and even riding with the drivers in order that the work may be accomplished efficiently. Through this system the results this year are proving better than in any previous campaign.

Dr. Elliott now urges that the residents who have cleaned up to now get busy and apply the paint brush.

Takes Shoes; Sleuths Watch Him; 20 Days

Removing a pair of shoes from the display in front of the B. Wagner store, 305 Twenty-fifth street, Stanley Oriel, age 19, of Cleveland, Ohio, say the police, tucked his booty beneath his coat and proceeded eastward along Twenty-fifth street. Detectives Robert Chambers and A. M. Edwards halted him not 150 feet from the store and asked him what he had.

"Shoes," he told the police. "I got 'em at that store down the street when the owner wasn't looking." He was taken to the police station and booked on a petit larceny charge. He appeared before Judge D. R. Roberts and pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 20 days in the city jail.

James Burns, of Kansas City, a partner to Oriel, was arrested and is being held for investigation, the police being of the opinion that he was wanted at Evanston, Wyoming.
